

BREMERTON'S
1st Annual
ENVIRONMENTAL FILM FESTIVAL

October 9 and 10, 2009

20% of all the proceeds will go to the local environmental non-profit group
Puget Sound Restoration Fund (PSRF)

Location: 1223 McKenzie Ave. Bremerton, WA

Time: 7:00pm to 9:00pm

Cost: $14.50 per evening or $27.00 for both evenings.

Free yoga pass to Samudra Yoga with every ticket purchase.

October 9, 2009

Buried in Sawdust, for 50 Years - Restoration of a WA estuary (long version).

Eelgrass Protection Program - Port Townsend, WA.

Kingdom of Tongan (Vava'u) - Coral Reef Monitoring.

Kingdom of Tonga (Vava'u) - Starting a water quality monitoring program.

Community shellfish farming/restoring water quality to Puget Sound (PSRF project).

October 10, 2009

Almost Lost (Part 1) - Restoration of the only native oyster in WA (PSRF project).

Almost Lost (Part 2) - Restoration of the only native abalone in WA (PSRF project).

Creosote removal in Puget Sound by Department of Natural Resources.

Kingdom of Tonga (Vava'u) - Restoration efforts to protect heritage plants.

Buried in Sawdust, for 50 years - Restoration of a WA estuary (short version).

Filmmaker: Shelly Solomon is a Biologist/Landscape Architect/Water Quality Restoration Specialist and Environmental Filmmaker. Shelly's goal with her films is to increase public awareness of the positive environmental work being done around the world.

Sponsored by:

Samudra Yoga and Leaping Frog Film Productions
360-385-3998 or 360-377-4227 for ticket purchase

